Quotes:

"Before we were born into God's family we could hear only the commands issued by the old sin nature. We were like a radio tuned to just one wavelength, the wavelength of the sin nature. But by the new birth we have been given a new capacity, a new wavelength; and now we must choose whether we will obey the commands of the old wavelength, or the new. Because we have been crucified with Christ, we have the option of allowing Christ to live His life through us." J. Dwight Pentecost
